

Leave XM alone,if conventional radio is unable to match their offerings so be it.You should not impede progress.As the horse and buggy gave way to the auto things must be allowed to evolve on their natural course.